Sentence Structure and Phrases

Qui habite dans ... / who lives in ...

la forêt - the forest

la savane - the savanna

le désert - the desert

la jungle - the jungle

Un singe habite dans un jungle / A monkey lives in a jungle le, la, l', les - all mean "the". Which one you use depends on whether it defines a masculine or feminine noun, and also if it is singular or plural.

There is also a correspondence between the definite article (the) and indefinite article (a).

le chat

un chat

the cat

a cat

la tortue

une tortue

the turtle

a turtle

If the noun starts with a vowel l' is used for both masculine and feminine:

l'éléphant

the elephant

If the noun is plural then it becomes les for both masculine and feminine les serpents

the snakes
