Year 5	French monster pets ♦	Space exploration- in French	Shopping in France ♦	French speaking world	Verbs in a French week ♦	Meet my French family ♦
Key knowledge from the unit	To know that bilingual dictionaries should not be used to look up every single word in a text	To know that, in French, the days of the week (with the exception of Sunday - Dimanche) were named after bodies in the solar system	To know that the pattern of building larger numbers changes beyond 70 by adding the teen numbers to 60, e.g soixante-dix (70), soixante-onze, soixante-douze	To know that when using à (to) and then the direct article à+ le = au (eg. au nord)	To understand that French verbs take different forms	To know that there is no possessive apostrophe in French but that to say 'my mother's father' the French would say Le père de ma mère (the father of my mother).
	To know that there are usually four forms of an adjective to describe- a noun that is singular masculine, a noun that is singular feminine, a noun that is plural masculine and a noun that is plural feminine	To know that metaphors and similes are also used in French and that a metaphor is when we say an object is another object and that a simile is when we liken an object to another	To know that the word for 80 means 'four twenties' - quatre-vingts , and numbers up to 100 are built by continuing to count on from quatre-vingt , e.g quatre-vingt-neuf, (89) quatre-vingt-dix, (90) quatre-vingt-onze (91)	To know that there are many countries where French is spoken in the world and be able to name some of these	To know that the infinitive is the basic form of a verb which in English is usually expressed as 'to [do something]' (e.g. 'to run')	To know that when a singular noun begins with a vowel, the possessive adjective ma is difficult to pronounce, so mon is used (e.g. mon ami / mon amie
	To revise that adjectives of size go before the noun and adjectives of colour go after the noun	To know that I can compare nouns by placing plus / moins and que around the adjective (e.g. Neptune est plus grande que Mercure)	To know that there are clues in the words for the multiples of 10, eg cinquante - 50	To know some 'treasures' that make up the national identity of France and some other French-speaking countries	To know that there are three different endings for French verbs in the infinitive form: those that end -er, those that end -ir and those that end -re	To revise agreement and position of adjectives in French.
		To know that I can use parce que (because) to extend my sentence and give a justification	To know that de translates as 'of' or 'some' and know that it changes when coupled with le to become du (not de le) and when coupled with les to become des (not de les) .	To know that I can use il y a to mean 'there is' or 'there are'	To know that the ending of regular -er verbs changes to go with the subject pronoun	To know that the word order is sometimes different in French compared to English
					To know that the French use guillemets << >> in the same way that the speech marks are used in English
					To know that some verbs do not follow regular patterns, such as avoir (to have) and être (to be)
					To know how to conjugate the verbs avoir and être
